

CLOSE CASH PRICES ON SEEDS, Harness and Wire.

ALFRED McDANIEL.

All over the town and you won't find goods to compare with ours. The entire stock is

New, Strictly High Grade, and Up-to-Date!

Consisting of

Dry Goods,
Shoes,
Millinery,
Gents' Hats and Furnishings.

We are now open and ready for business, and cordially invite your inspection of our Stock, and will appreciate your patronage.

Respectfully yours,

E. E. REED,

Buckner Building, next door to Laclede Hotel,

HICKMAN, KY.

THE BEST

PATENT FLOUR

Only $5.50 per Barrel.

5 lbs Arbuckles's or

XXXX Coffee, $1.00.

TELEPHONE 30.

W. S. Ellison.

LOCAL NEWS.

"Look and the world laughs with you." A fast most unpleasantly true. "Half the length of the lung you have only." The world may be laughing at you.

"March come in like a lamb." The new announcement this week.

"The next thing on the program will be the Easter bonnet."

"The new fashion is not fitting with the former fashions."

"Mrs. Mollie Prather, of Newbern, Tenn., is visiting in the city."

"Some people are willing to do what you will if you will, then for what will you do?"

"Rev. Sam P. Jones will lecture at the church house in Clinton on March 25th."

"Miss Lou Taylor, of Fallon, is visiting the family of her brother, Mr. Taylor."

"Doubtless makes courage. It is a source meant the reverse, the world would be full of heroes."

"Mr. B. T. Davis has purchased the residence of Mrs. Mollie Prather, and will go to housekeeping."

"Miss Linda Plant, who has been visiting friends at Omaha Point, Tenn., returned home Saturday."

"Don't criticize the river. You wouldn't have been so well as it does if you were half full."

"The men who would be successful in any business must study its requirements and undertake it with energy and intelligence."

NEW SPRING SUITS.

We have just received our new line of STRONG & BROS. High Art Cloth & Hoses. High Art Cloth & Hoses. See the new Plain suits, ranging in price from $8.50 to $16.50.

MENS, LADIES AND MISSES SHOES

For Spring wear. Our Catalogue will be sent to Men, Ladies and Children, the prettiest in town. We have all the new Toss, in all widths and colors.

OXBLOOD AND CHOCOLATE,

With Hosiery to match each shade.

C. H. Baltzer & Son.

The bicycle and base ball season will soon be here.

—The railroad has prepared the ground for the railroad is prepared, also in view of the continued rains.

—Mr. John S. Dillon has accepted a position with Mr. Ed. Meyer in his jewelry store.

—Miss E. E. Reed will leave for St. Louis to purchase her Spring and Summer stock of millinery.

—Rev. H. C. Amherst has resigned the pastorate of Clinton College, and his place has been filled by Rev. Riley, of Mississippi.

—Mr. E. E. Reed, of Wickliffe, has opened up a stock of dry goods, millinery, etc., in the back room building. See him at the office.

—The season is now at hand when BLOODY Puritans are most used. BLOODY The Dringgat, east of town, still has his stock in that line. Call and see him.

—Mr. Paul Jones, of Ulen, Cyrus, and Polmer, Miss., were in town this week, goods on the market.

—All are invited to attend the balloon race of the Emporia Club, Saturday evening.

—A boy's coat falls in this month, and when she tells him that it hurts her more than it does him to whip him.

—Meals served hot any time. Don't wait until the last minute.

—EATOUR RESTAURANT.

—No candidate in property equipped unless he has his pockets full of cards. We print them neatly and cheap.

—The Young League was forced to hold its Sunday afternoon by a talk from Judge Handle and Rev. Hart, of Fulton.

—Mr. Chas. Prather left Monday night for Tyler, Tex. He is engaged in the oil fields for the Rogers & Green at that point.

—The grand jury at Mafford, Ky., has been ordered to look into the lynchings that have recently occurred at that place.

—Come and see our new Candidates — we'll treat you right.

—New Eng. CANOE KITCHENS.

—Over the Union school of our county have gathered in regular attendance, who are more than seventy years of age.

—If you know any news don't be afraid to come and tell us about it. We'll print it for you.

—The Young League was forced to hold its Sunday afternoon by a talk from Judge Handle and Rev. Hart, of Fulton.

—Mr. Chas. Prather left Monday night for Tyler, Tex. He is engaged in the oil fields for the Rogers & Green at that point.

—The grand jury at Mafford, Ky., has been ordered to look into the lynchings that have recently occurred at that place.

—The Union City Democrat says that the new school of our county has been opened at Clinton College the past month, and their numbers are to be increased.

—Lancaster is looking forward to the fact that all 525 widows.

—The Stanford Journal answers that Stanford has 54 widows and many more married women.

—It is better off if they were widows.

—The Emerson Bros., Tom and Henry, of Mayfield, have bought out the business of the old place.

—Henry will have charge of the business here. Miss Carpenter will continue in the business.

—Do the thing which you know you ought to do at the time, whether you like it or not — we can't afford to be sentimental.

—The habit of "creaming" has come to all several of the country clubs, and it is to be deplored that the cream is so often taken.

—The City Council has granted permission to the Trustees of Hickman College to fence the school grounds opposite the college.

—We understand that it is the intention of the trustees to erect a dormitory to accommodate the students.

—Extra Bargains in Winter Goods in the entire stock.

—The men who always do just as a wife wants him to save a sum of money, and then when he is in a position to do otherwise, improve it. It could be made a delightful place. The Conner home has been urging the accomplishment of this for many years, and we are glad to know that work on it will commence shortly.

—The failure of the United States Building and Loan Association of Louisville, last week, should not prejudice the minds of those people against other associations, the kind of which our moral sense has dictated.

—The man who always does just as a wife wants him to save a sum of money, and then when he is in a position to do otherwise, improve it. It could be made a delightful place. The Conner home has been urging the accomplishment of this for many years, and we are glad to know that work on it will commence shortly.

—The men who always do just as a wife wants him to save a sum of money, and then when he is in a position to do otherwise, improve it. It could be made a delightful place. The Conner home has been urging the accomplishment of this for many years, and we are glad to know that work on it will commence shortly.

—Miss Linda Plant, who has been visiting friends at Omaha Point, Tenn., returned home Saturday.

—Don't criticize the river. You wouldn't have been so well as it does if you were half full.

—The men who would be successful in any business must study its requirements and undertake it with energy and intelligence.

Capt. J. J. Young, after five years of service on the Paducah and Brooklyn trans-boat fleet, has tendered his resignation as master of the steamer Oshawa. He contemplates moving to his former home in Hickman — Paducah News.

The young men who were大道 in the spring through the window blinds at a residence in East Hickman Sunday night had better go elsewhere or they will be made to pay for their thoughtlessness. They are known. A blot to the wife is sufficient.

The time is upon us when we may tickle the earth a little, and the editor will now try landscape gardening with the seeds he is receiving from the seedsmen. He will continue to purchase his vegetables at the same place.

A negro named Louis Thomas who worked on the Decatur farm for Mr. and Mrs. W. C. and others, was a Sunday.

He was under a watch —

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Easter this year comes late

April 18. Indeed, it can never come but seven days later, April

25, and the earliest it can come

is May 2. Easter will be on the first Sunday after the full moon or

after the vernal equinox. March

21 is the beginning of the season.

—Easter this year comes late

April 18. Indeed, it can never

come but seven days later, April

25, and the earliest it can come

is May 2. Easter will be on the first Sunday after the full moon or

after the vernal equinox. March

21 is the beginning of the season.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

and retail dealer in all sorts of

goods, says that will be on

order and most

about the middle of the present

month, and that unseasonable

weather will be a factor in

the cost of vegetables.

—Prof. Hicks, wholesale

